DISTRICT NUMBER 4

SEDRO-WOOLLEY, WASHINGTON

John Guddall

Dedication

No man can render greater service to his community than he who gives unselfishly of his time and energy in an honest endeavor to improve the public schools. John Guddall has served as a member of the Board of Education of Union High School District Number 4 for eighteen consecutive years. His friendly spirit, unbounded enthusiasm, and sound advice have contributed much to the educational advancement of this community.

Mr. Guddall was largely responsible for the erection in 1939 of the splendid auditorium-gymnasium addition to the Central Grade School. He was this year reelected without opposition to serve another three-year term on the local grade school Board of Education. The faith that the people of the community have placed in him is indicative of his success. He is a true friend and a humble servant of public education.

Foreword

The staff of the Kumtux has worked diligently in order to make an annual that will not only be entertaining at present but will also help preserve in years to come the memories of events and fellow students at Sedro-Woolley High School during 1940.

Working with students, faculty, pictures, and write-ups, we have each gained something that time cannot take away. We hope you will enjoy each page of this book as much as we did in making it.

Administration

Perhaps you have heard the little jingle: "The pleasant little rivers with the drifting folks are crammed; the easy roads are crowded, and the level roads are jammed; where the going's smooth and pleasant you will always find the throng, for the many, more's the pity, seem to like to drift along."

Many people just drift on the sea of life. They have no definite destination. They live in the hope that at some future date the tide will bear them good fortune.

Some people, on the other hand, succeed. They have a definite destination. They follow a specific course. They realize that real physical and mental energy is required to reach a goal.

Nothing worthwhile will ever come to the boy or girl who just sits and dreams, but opportunities are numerous for the young man or the young woman who is willing to put forth effort of the type that will later find expression in an enriched life and a strengthened character.

T. H. Muncaster

Student Government

The Executive Council determines Associated Student activities. This organization is composed of A.S.B. officers, representatives from each class, editors of the publications, and three faculty advisers. It meets ten days preceding each assembly and discusses the business which may arise, thus enabling the actual meeting to progress with ease and rapidity. The faculty advisers are Miss Una Stewart, Mr. Kenneth Driskill, and Mr. Tom Mullen.

A new form of student self-government has been introduced this year and is known as the Forum. This representative group meets every two weeks on Tuesday, and is a clearing house for any student problems which arise around school. While this has been a trial year for the Forum, this organization has nevertheless a splendid record of accomplishments in its wake. Courtesy Week, for instance, succeeded in making every student "manners minded." Since the innovation of the Forum, conduct in the halls and at school functions has greatly improved. A boys' hall patrol suggested by the Forum, with Laurence Hunter as chairman, has been largely responsible for the improved conditions in the halls. This patrol has had the cooperation of the students and has proved to be very worthwhile.

David McIntyre heads the Forum as president, Laurence Hunter is vice-president, and Merle Stanley is secretary. Mrs. Mable Bergholz, Mr. Tom Mullen, and Mr. Sverre Omdahl are the faculty advisers. Altogether there are fifteen members. The Forum and Executive Council are to be commended for their fine work throughout the year.

A school without pep is worse than a ship without a sail. If the song and yell leaders are unable to kindle the spark of loyalty and enthusiasm in the student body, they are beaten before they start. But no such problem arose to dampen the spirits of S.W.'s peppy cheer leaders. The song and yell leaders have found the Sedro-Woolley student body a group ready and willing to give vent to their school spirit in songs and yells. If school spirit can be measured by the quality and volume of the songs and yells given at games and assemblies, the student body has certainly proved it has an abundance of it. This year Wayne Hegg, yell king, and Lloyd Marihugh and Roger Hammond, yell dukes, succeeded in bringing out plenty of volume in the yells, while LaVerne Swanson and Marian Henderson, song leaders, inspired the cheering section to sing its best.

A. S. B. OFFICERS: Studebaker, president; Harang, vice-president; Stanley, secretary; Hudson, treasurer.

YELL LEADERS: Marihugh, Hegg. DRUM MAJORETTES: Jensen, Popplewell, Ingersoll. SONG LEADERS: Swanson, Henderson.

SENIORS

One final blaze of glory and the seniors are gone! The Senior Ball, April 12, called the "Cherry Blossom Ball," was the only formal dance of the year. Art Newman's swing band furnished the music, and the attractively decorated gymnasium presented a colorful picture to those who attended the function. Committee chairmen for the ball were: Hammer, general chairman; Harbert, decorations; Hegg, music; Peterson, tickets; Batey, refreshments; L. Swanson, theme; Reece, invitation; McIntyre, cleanup.

The class of 1940 is the largest graduating class in school history, with 138 members, and it is also the first to wear caps and gowns for graduation. The gowns will be blue with white collars; the caps, blue with blue and white tassels.

Mr. Reed Fulton of Seattle will be the main speaker for Commencement in the place of student speakers. However, student speakers are not to be done away with entirely. A novel feature of the program provides for the use of students in presenting the awards. The A.S.B. athletic award, attendance honor awards, Clint

W. Lee award, Country Club membership, G.A.A. award, Honor Society pins, and A.S.B. merit plaques are to be presented by seven students. This arrangement of the program gives an opportunity for the students to actively participate in the program, at the same time having an outside speaker give an inspirational address.

Among the students to be graduated this year are many who have proved themselves to be of outstanding scholastic ability. Elver Huntley is valedictorian and Mabel Hanson, salutatorian. Approximately 19 students will receive merit plaques and torch pins at Commencement for outstanding achievement in activities and high scholarship.

The senior play which was such an outstanding success is reviewed elsewhere in the Kumtux. Class Day is an occasion seniors long remember. This event was under the direction of Bill Studebaker, general chairman.

Throughout its final year the class was led by Hunter, president; Scott, vice-president; Batey, secretary; Miller, treasurer; and Miss Una Stewart, adviser.

Will and Prophecy

Feeling confident that we are still sane of mind and sound of body in spite of having been bullied by our teachers for four long years, and believing that we should not pass from these halls without giving over to posterity a few of the characteristics that have contributed to our famousness (not to mention our infamousness), we, the class of 1940, hereby publish our last will and testament:

Jim Sanders leaves his part in the senior play to the chemistry room. (Confidentially, it steenks) . . . Dave McIntyre to Roger Hammond leaves his size 42 sweater . . . Judson Van Liew bequeaths his hair on his chest to Gene Johnson for future stage mustaches . . . Jack Peterson gives Norm Finsen his ability to swing a mean chopper in dissecting cow cutlets . . . Bob Bassett gives his crooning ability to Jakie Jech . . . Wyman Hammer leaves his ability to have a good time to anyone who has an Ingersoll handy . . . Red Hunter having chased Bugs Anderson for four years finally leaves her to another Hunter . . . Merle Stanley bequeaths her ability to make extemporaneous speeches to Captain Norm Lisherness because he just won't recite in class anyway . . . Bill Meins to Orris Ebbeson leaves his ability to move faster than anyone else in school . . . To Alvin Schacht, Ralph Stendal gives his boastful gift of gab . . . Roberta Humble leaves her ability to play gangster moll roles on stage to Lucille Robinson . . . Punk Clifford gives his ability to "swing on down" to Stanley Holton . . . Mike Pizzuto leaves his ability to squeeze the squeeze box to Wesley Holmes.

After taking a cockeyed squint in the crystal ball, it was possible to see these strange situations which were mirrored there. Arthur Hartvig has been reelected by a big majority to his post of city dog catcher. Keep up the good work, Art! . . . Virginia Jessett will serve another term as mayor of Sedro-Woolley . . . Gilbert Johnson has been newly elected as mayor of the up and coming little city, Big Lake . . . Those two famous women scientists, Ethel Palmer and Winnifred Thresher, have just completed their first observation with their new 300-inch telescope. They announce the awe-inspiring discovery that the moon is not made of green cheese . . . Bernie Linvog is now house to house demonstrator for "Bright and Shiny" Tooth Grease . . . Bob Knowlton, successor to Paderwhiski, will begin grooming Marge Moen for the musical part in "You Can't Take It With You" . . . Bert Schrader, World's Heavyweight Boxing Champion for the past two years, has finally been defeated. He was knocked out last night in the second round of a scheduled fifteen round fight by Elver Huntley . . . How many of us are going to the Sedro-Woolley Opera House next Sunday night to hear the operatic debut of Marilyn Johnson? . . . Winton Klaus will be the stage manager for the production "Sleeping Beauty," starring Norm Lindbloom . . . LaVerne Swanson is still waiting for Bob Cook to get over his bashfulness . . . Ruth Stoute and Roddie Robertson are making their final appearance in the opera "Rigoletto" before retiring to their mansion in McMurray . . . John Mulbeier is touring Hoogdal on the money he won from the Irish Sweep Stakes.

Being Candid

1. Wayne and Velma doing an Astaire and Rogers act for the Kumtux assembly. Hang on tight, Velma, or you're a gonner.

2. Miss Thompson telling the G.A.A. dancers that Clara Meins was chosen "milkmaid."

3. It looks like a soft job to us, Guy. 'Course we wouldn't know.

4. Gracious, how you boys have changed!

5. You look more natural here, Art. Why don't you break right down and smile?

6. Marian and Ralph, rugcutters supreme.

7. Confucius say: Girl who look like Velma very pretty.

8. Vera is so anxious that Leonard's coffee be good.

9. They say mannish clothes are going to be good this season, but this seems like going a bit far, Emma. Or is this a case of "now I am a man?"

10. Wizard of Oz boys in the Kumtux assembly. Life is pretty serious isn't it, Herb? And you don't need to look so coy either, J. R. Bet you didn't know you were losing your straw tummy. It's rumored that Fowler Walker is under that glum exterior. And that's "Dotty" King trying to hide.

11. Olie getting Associated.

12. Our A.S.B. Prexy wearing his most dignified expression. He saves this one just for the birdie on the camera.

13. Lil' Edythe looking quizzical.

Being an energetic and peppy group, this year's juniors show great promise as future leaders in Sedro-Woolley High. Members of the class participated in the All School Play, Hi-Nite, music, sports, and are represented in the Honor Society.

Highlighting their social year, the class of 1941 presented their prom, "Sports Frolic," on December 11. With much hard work, the juniors transformed the gymnasium into a gala sports parade. Names well-known in high school athletics were spelled on the side walls with the insignia of their respective sport—small footballs for S. W.'s county championship gridiron men, boxing gloves for the pugilists, and members of the baseball team were named by an array of baseballs.

By popular vote at a special election of the junior class, Joe Hunter and Maxine McDougle were elected king and queen of the festivities. Each received a box of candy at their coronation during intermission. Arthur Newman's swing band provided the music.

Several committees worked with Elaine Thompson, who was general chairman. They were: dance committee: Chairman Joe Hunter, Quinby Bingham, Ole Johnson, Edythe Ingersoll, Marian Henderson; food committee: Chairman Bernice Anderson, Wanda Anderson; ticket committee: Chairman Herbert Drummond, Doris Holden, Ed Greathouse; theme committee: Chairman Dorn Shomshak, Don Johnston, Maxine McDougle; invitation committee: Chairman Beverly Moore, Frank Hebert, Faith Dinkins; advertising committee: Chairman Peggy Leggett, Fay Bierstedt, Barbara Markell, Margaret Curnutt; clean-up committee: Chairman Jack Wardell, Stanley Holton, Arthur Muhlbeier, Harold Blank.

Class officers this year were: Lloyd Marihugh, president; Don Johnston, vice-president; Maxine McDougle, secretary; Dorn Shomshak, treasurer; Dorothy Beeman, song leader; Roger Hammond, yell leader; and Frank Hebert, representative to the A. S. B. Executive Council. Miss Jeanette Smith was the adviser.

This year the sophomore class has been very active. It might even be said that its members have crossed a second frontier. In crossing they have set up new goals, broken old records, and discovered untried fields which they hope to conquer. The class has proved its worthiness for stepping into the upper-classmen's shoes when as juniors they return next fall.

They have shown themselves outstanding in the field of sports, and have been well represented in other school activities.

As the class reaches the halfway mark with honors, it looks back upon the first two years of its high school career and hopes its next two are as successful as the first.

This year's class officers have been: McClure, president; Beach, vice-president; Bellos, secretary; and Wilcox, treasurer. Mr. Glenn Hall has acted as adviser.

Although the freshmen as a class are confronted with few special problems during the year, the activities of its members have proved that they will be able to cope with bigger problems that will arise in the next three years.

The outstanding traits of the class of '43 are the unusual number of students participating in activities, and the surprising number of students who have high scholastic standings. The pep, good sportsmanship, and leadership shown by the freshmen prove that this class is a credit to the school and will continue to be so.

At the beginning of the year the freshmen may have seemed perplexed, but now after becoming acquainted with this school's methods, they have lost their doubts and fears.

Freshman officers have been: Hurd, president; Robertson, vice-president; Doxsee, secretary; and Long, treasurer. Miss Alma Youngberg was adviser.

These candid shots are typical views of students engaged in class work provided in various school departments. The curriculum offered in Union High School District No. 4 is broad, and gives students training in both vocational and cultural subjects.

The last period each day is set aside for activities. During this time, students are given the opportunity of pursuing a large number of hobbies under the supervision of a faculty member.

This school is fortunate in having one of the state's best high school cafeterias which has been ably managed for six years by Mrs. Robert Parker.

ATHLETICS

Sports Review

After a great deal of planning and organizing, the Lions Club made it possible last fall for Sedro-Woolley to have flood lights installed on Greene Memorial Field, the first on any athletic field in the county. The Associated Students are deeply appreciative of the interest and untiring zeal the Lions Club showed while working for this project. As a result of their enterprise, the gate receipts from football increased 50 per cent over previous years. The new lights were officially presented at the Bellingham game.

While each sport has its own section in the annual, this page gives a brief resume of all sports. The Cubs under Coach Tom Mullen tied for the Skagit County football championship. For the first time since football has been a major sport, the Cubs played ten games, a very heavy schedule for a high school team. Much credit for the Cubs' excellent showing in this sport is due Coach Mullen.

Next came basketball, and to Coach Omdahl should tribute for excellent coaching be given. The team developed to top ranking birth and entered the district tournament. There the Cubs were nosed out by Blaine, 50-45, and Marysville, 65-27. Developed from a squad of only two lettermen, the Cub casaba tossers improved steadily until they were the cream of the county basketball crop.

The Cub boxing team was generally considered the best amateur mitt-slinging team in Western Washington. Coach Bill Mullen's squad engaged in six smokers and lost but one. In their four home smokers, the Cubs drew some of the biggest crowds that have ever been in the gym. Except for the smoker with Fife, Coach Kenneth Driskill's mat-men won every smoker in which they engaged. Despite this one defeat, the Cubs were generally considered to be as good as any high school wrestlers in the state. Congratulations are in order.

The three spring sports squads were just getting well underway at press time. Coaches and teams are working hard. In regard to track, it should be mentioned here that Shelton '39 set a record in the high hurdles in the 1938 district meet. He also holds records for the county and relay carnival in 1939. His best time, made in the county race, was 15.2. In last year's state meet, E. Silverthorn, failing in his attempt to set a new record, tied in the pole vault with a 12' 5" jump. In the county meet, S. W. took all four places in the broad jump totaling 81' 4".

Vim and Vigor

"Swing your partners, and sashay round!" Such were the directions given at the Hill Billy Hop sponsored by the G.A.A. This being the most informal dance of the year, decorations were in true hill billy style. Refreshments were sold from a booth which was made to represent a wishing well. Pictures of "Lil' Abner," his family, and barnyard fowls adorned the walls. From a very real looking pigpen at one end of the gymnasium, Al Weidcamp's orchestra played for the dances. Overhead, strips of burlap and bunches of hay and vegetables were strung. Clara Meins was chosen "milkmaid" by a popular vote of the G.A.A. girls.

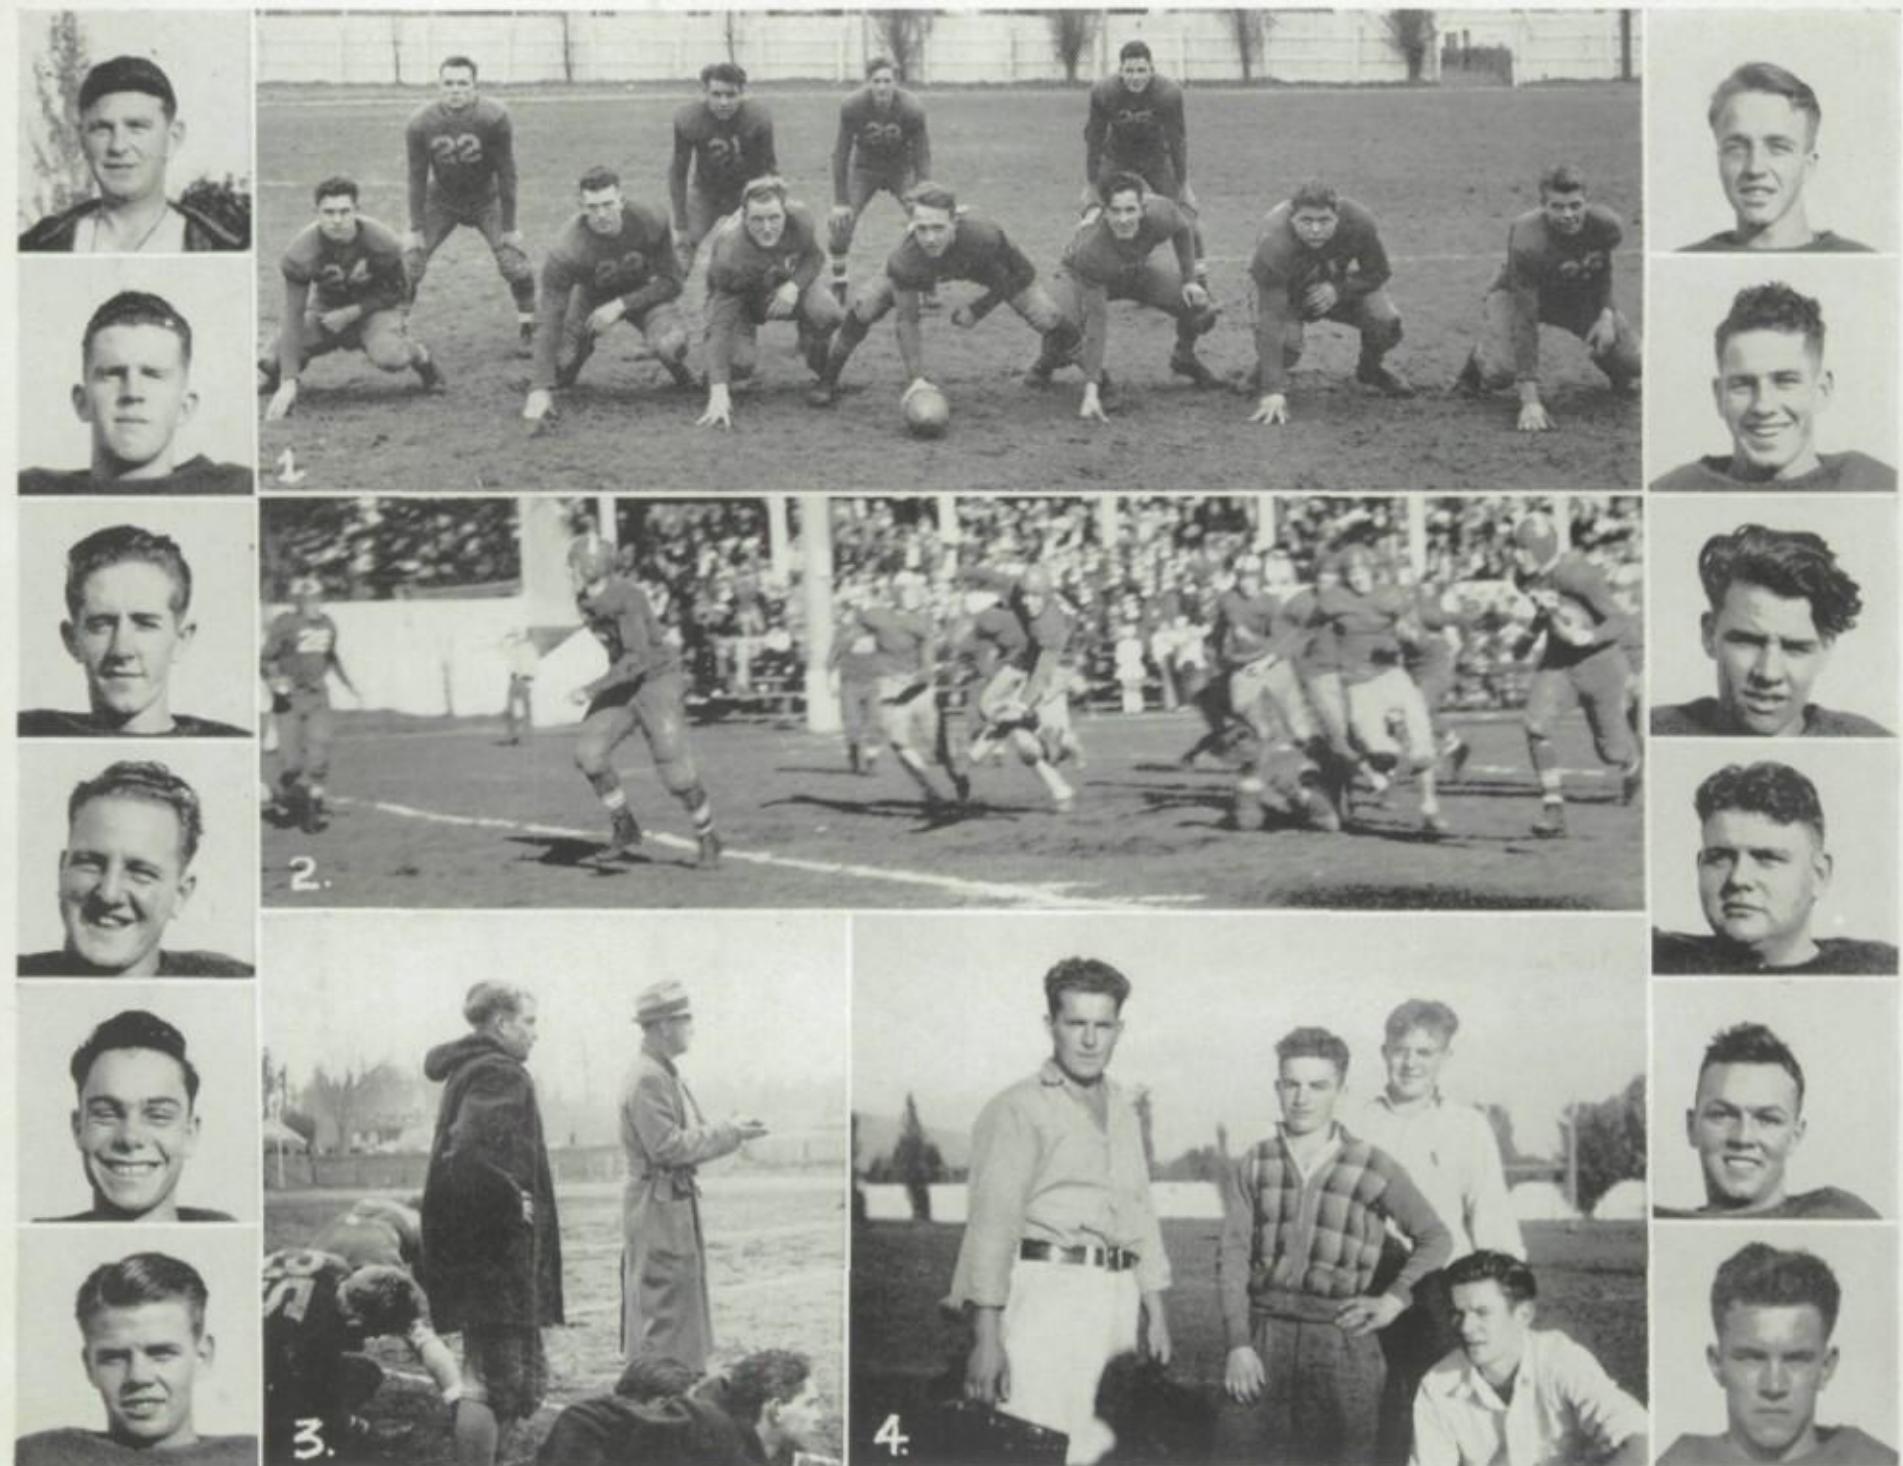

The G.A.A. is the organization which sponsors girls' sports, and is one of the largest groups in the school. This year the G.A.A. purchased a new target and added archery to the list of sports in which the girls participate. After attending playdays at several other schools in the county, the local G.A.A. entertained girls from LaConner, Anacortes, Burlington, and Mount Vernon with a playday picnic at Cranberry Lake. The officers this year were: Meins, president; Anderson, vice-president; Ingersoll, secretary; Fahey, yell leader; Jensen, song leader. Miss Vera Thompson was the adviser.

Increasing their membership to a total of 50 and ordering standard sweaters and emblems was an important part of the business of the Pep Club this year. The girls formed an organized rooting section at all of the athletic contests, making a colorful picture in their blue and white uniforms. Officers were: Batey, president; Deneen, vice-president; McMackin, secretary-treasurer; Holden, yell leader; and Miss Vera Thompson, adviser.

To be eligible for membership in the S. W. Club a boy has to make a letter in one of the seven major sports. The group had a membership of 80. They contributed $30 toward payment of the new time clock. Officers were: Cratsenberg, president; Hunter, secretary-treasurer; Mr. Thomas Mullen, adviser.

New members of the S. W. Club were initiated after the final track meet of the season. This year the society contributed several pictures of outstanding athletes to the growing collection in the cafeteria.

Gridsters

Sedro-Woolley's successful football season, a season in which they emerged in a tie with Anacortes for the Skagit County championship, was largely due to hard blocking and tackling. A hard driving backfield operating behind a big hard-charging line was responsible for a season's record of 7 wins, 2 ties, and 1 loss, scoring 246 points to their opponents 30.

In the opening game of the season, a contest with an out-of-county team, the Bellingham Red Raiders managed to conquer the battling Cubs by a score of 18-12. The locals' first score came in the third period, when Johnny Jech, substitute halfback, whipped a long pass to end, "Slick" Ellestad, who proceeded to run to the end zone for a score. Olie Harang made the other Cub score by plunging through the line.

Next on the Cub schedule came Marysville's Tomahawks. Both teams had such outstanding defensive lines that the game ended in a 0-0 tie. Then the Cubs journeyed to Renton and proceeded to polish off the King County boys 20-0. It was in this game that Lisherness got his first taste of work in the backfield. Arlington's Eagles next descended upon the Cub camp, to avenge their defeat of the previous year by the Cubs, but the S. W. lads administered a 41-6 beating. The Cub second team also saw much action in this game. This year, for the first time, the locals played the Lakeside Lions, Seattle prep boys. The Lions were defeated 19-0. A week later Snohomish was completely routed 26-0. Passes from Lisherness to Jech were features of both these games.

Swinging into their conference games, Sedro-Woolley swamped Concrete 32-0. The Cubs' Armistice Day tilt with Burlington, played on Armistice eve so that the lights might be used, proved to be a 39-0 walkaway in favor of the charging blue and white. Next the Cubs invaded Anacortes, confident of a victory over the Seahawks. However, this tussle ended in a 6-6 tie and a tie with the Hawks for the Skagit County title. Anacortes put up the best competition that the Cubs had during the season, and only after Harang, Jech, and Anderson carried the ball on successive ground plays, was S. W. able to score. Due to crooked goal posts, the Cub try for point went wild. Anacortes then scored on a series of passes to tie the score with one minute to go.

The Cubs' traditional Thanksgiving Day battle with Mt. Vernon's Bulldogs proved a complete rout for the visitors, the Cubs having everything their way in a game finally ending 50-0 for the locals. This victory crowned the Cubs' efforts for the season.

Nine S. W. players were chosen on the all-county team. Cratsenberg, rugged center; Hunter, standout tackle; Lisherness, flashy halfback; Wardell, defensive guard; Harang, driving fullback; McIntyre, giant tackle; Scott, blocking quarterback; Ellestad, crashing end; and Pizzuto, tough guard, placed on this mythical eleven. Kell and Greathouse were named on the second team.

In addition to the above mentioned, the following won letters: Austin, Anderson, Baller, Clifford, Gee, Hammer, Hinchen, Jech, Knowlton, W. Meins, Snelson, Stendal, and Wolslegel. Silves and Smallwood received manager awards.

The second team, coached by Harmon Colby, defeated Anacortes 33-0 and Mt. Vernon 32-0. The Frosh squad, under Elmer Isvick, played two games, tying one and winning one.

Maplecourt Champions

In the closest county basketball race witnessed in many a year, with results doubtful till the last minute, the local quintet under Coach Omdahl won the Skagit County Championship for the second consecutive year. Two Cub players named on all-county first selections were Meins, forward, and N. Lisherness, center. Bob Cogdill, forward, placed on the all-county second team. Floyd Cratsenberg, guard, was voted the most inspirational player by his teammates and was given the coach's inspirational trophy.

With only two losses, the Cub finished first in the county race, Anacortes Seahawks running a close second. The 1940 season was begun by losing to Mt. Baker, 35-30. The scores in the practice games were: Marysville 24, S.W. 22; Arlington, 37, S.W. 17; Coupville 14, S.W. 18; LaConner 28, S.W. 24; Ferndale 33, S.W. 46. Scores in the county games read: Edison 19, S.W. 17; Burlington 17, S.W. 34; Concrete 29, S.W. 30; Anacortes 34, S.W. 32; Mt. Vernon 35, S.W. 37; Burlington 32, S.W. 44; Hamilton 31, S.W. 54; LaConner 19, S.W. 35; Anacortes 25, S.W. 27; and Mt. Vernon 26, S.W. 32.

The following men received letters: Honorary Captain Cogdill, N. Lisherness, Meins, Cratsenberg, Gee, Ellestad, Harang, Johnson, V. Lisherness, and Hunter.

Mat Artists

Finding competition for his wrestlers was one of Coach Driskill's major problems this year. However, they were able to participate in several all-wrestling smokers besides some combination cards. The season was begun by winning two bouts and losing two in a smoker with Lummi Day and the Washington Athletic Club. Woolley entered the Pacific Northwest Amateur Tournament at Everett where three boys, Stendal, Duncan, and Clough, won second places. As a team the Cubs won second place. Fife defeated Woolley, 5-1; and the locals beat Edison, 6-1. In the state interscholastic tournament, Stendal placed second in his weight and Pizzuto took third. Letter winners were: Capt. Stendal, Johnston, Schreindl, Duncan, Pizzuto, and Clough.

Winning a total of 40 bouts and losing only 14, Coach Bill Mullen's valiant Cub pugilists emerged from their third year of boxing with flying banners. The boys began their season by defeating Hoquiam, who had boasted a no-loss record. In the next victorious smoker, Sedro-Woolley fought opponents from Bellingham C. Y.O., Mount Baker High School, and Lummi Day. Seattle Prep received a 9-1 setback by the Cubs; Kelso, 8-2. In a return battle, the Cubs lost to Kelso, 4-3. Fourteen boys received letters; Captain Schrader, Hammond, Wilcox, Davis, Shomshak, Kelley, Bacus, McCalib, Dewey, Hetzel, Kell, Holton, Wolslegel, and Hudson, manager.

The smokers continued this year to be as popular as ever with the sports fans.

Tracksters

At the time of going to press, Coach Colby's boys had a fair chance of repeating last year's feat and grabbing the county title. Although little new material turned up in the inter-class meet, which the sophomores won, S. W. had some fine new aspirants in addition to the returning lettermen.

The season began by winning from Mt. Vernon 57-65, and from Burlington 73 1/6—48 5/6. These are Woolley's two strongest opponents. Good showings in the Mt. Vernon meet were made by Hunter, shot put, 42' 9 3/8"; Mitchell, mile, 4 min. 55 sec.; Harang, broad jump, 20'

1 1/4"; Knowlton, javelin, 154' 4". Honors this year for the Cubs rest with the following men: Knowlton, javelin; Harang, broad jump and discus; Smith, Ridgeway Trophy winner, 440-yard dash; Hunter, shot put; Stendal, good all-round participant; Larrabee and Hammer, high jump; and Mitchell, mile. Returning lettermen included Co-captains Knowlton and Harang, Smith, Mitchell, Stendal, and Hunter. Boys with a chance of making their letter are: Hammer, Stetson, Palmer, Adlington, Allen, Kelley, Ringer, Larrabee, Rothausen, and Wilson, manager.

Up to Bat

Winning two practice games and losing five, the Cub baseball outlook was rather gloomy at the time of going to press. Woolley defeated Burlington 15-0; trounced Mt. Vernon Junior College 13-3; lost two different double headers to Everett, 8-4, 4-1, and 4-0, 9-0; and were defeated 6-0 by Hamilton.

The toughest teams still to be met are Anacortes and Mt. Vernon. With Meins, Lisherness, Goad, Gee, Studebaker, Scott, and Kell returning lettermen, as a nucleus, a squad of eighteen boys has been developed. Not all will receive letters. Bill Mullen is coach.

Ready, Serve

Under Coach Tom Mullen, the Cub net-men started their season by tying Burlington, playing two matches for two; then defeated Lynden 3 matches to 1. After playing a number of other practice matches, Sedro-Woolley climaxed its season by competing in the Skagit County tennis tournament.

The loss of every tennis letterman, through graduation, necessitated breaking in an entirely new team this year. Probable lettermen are: Byham, Evans, Peterson, Hunter, Bassett, and Hebert. With both the county singles and doubles championships to defend, the team, though inexperienced, shows promise of having a successful season.

Cream of the Crop

Many girls participate in girls' sports after school. The turnouts are sponsored by the G.A.A. Through these sports points are earned for membership in G.A.A. There are eight games offered which are supervised by Miss Vera Thompson, physical education instructor. Sports managers this year were: Stanley, volleyball; McMackin, basketball; Markell, tennis; Harang, tumbling; Beeman, badminton; Leggett, cageball; Bjergstedt, archery; Fahey, baseball.

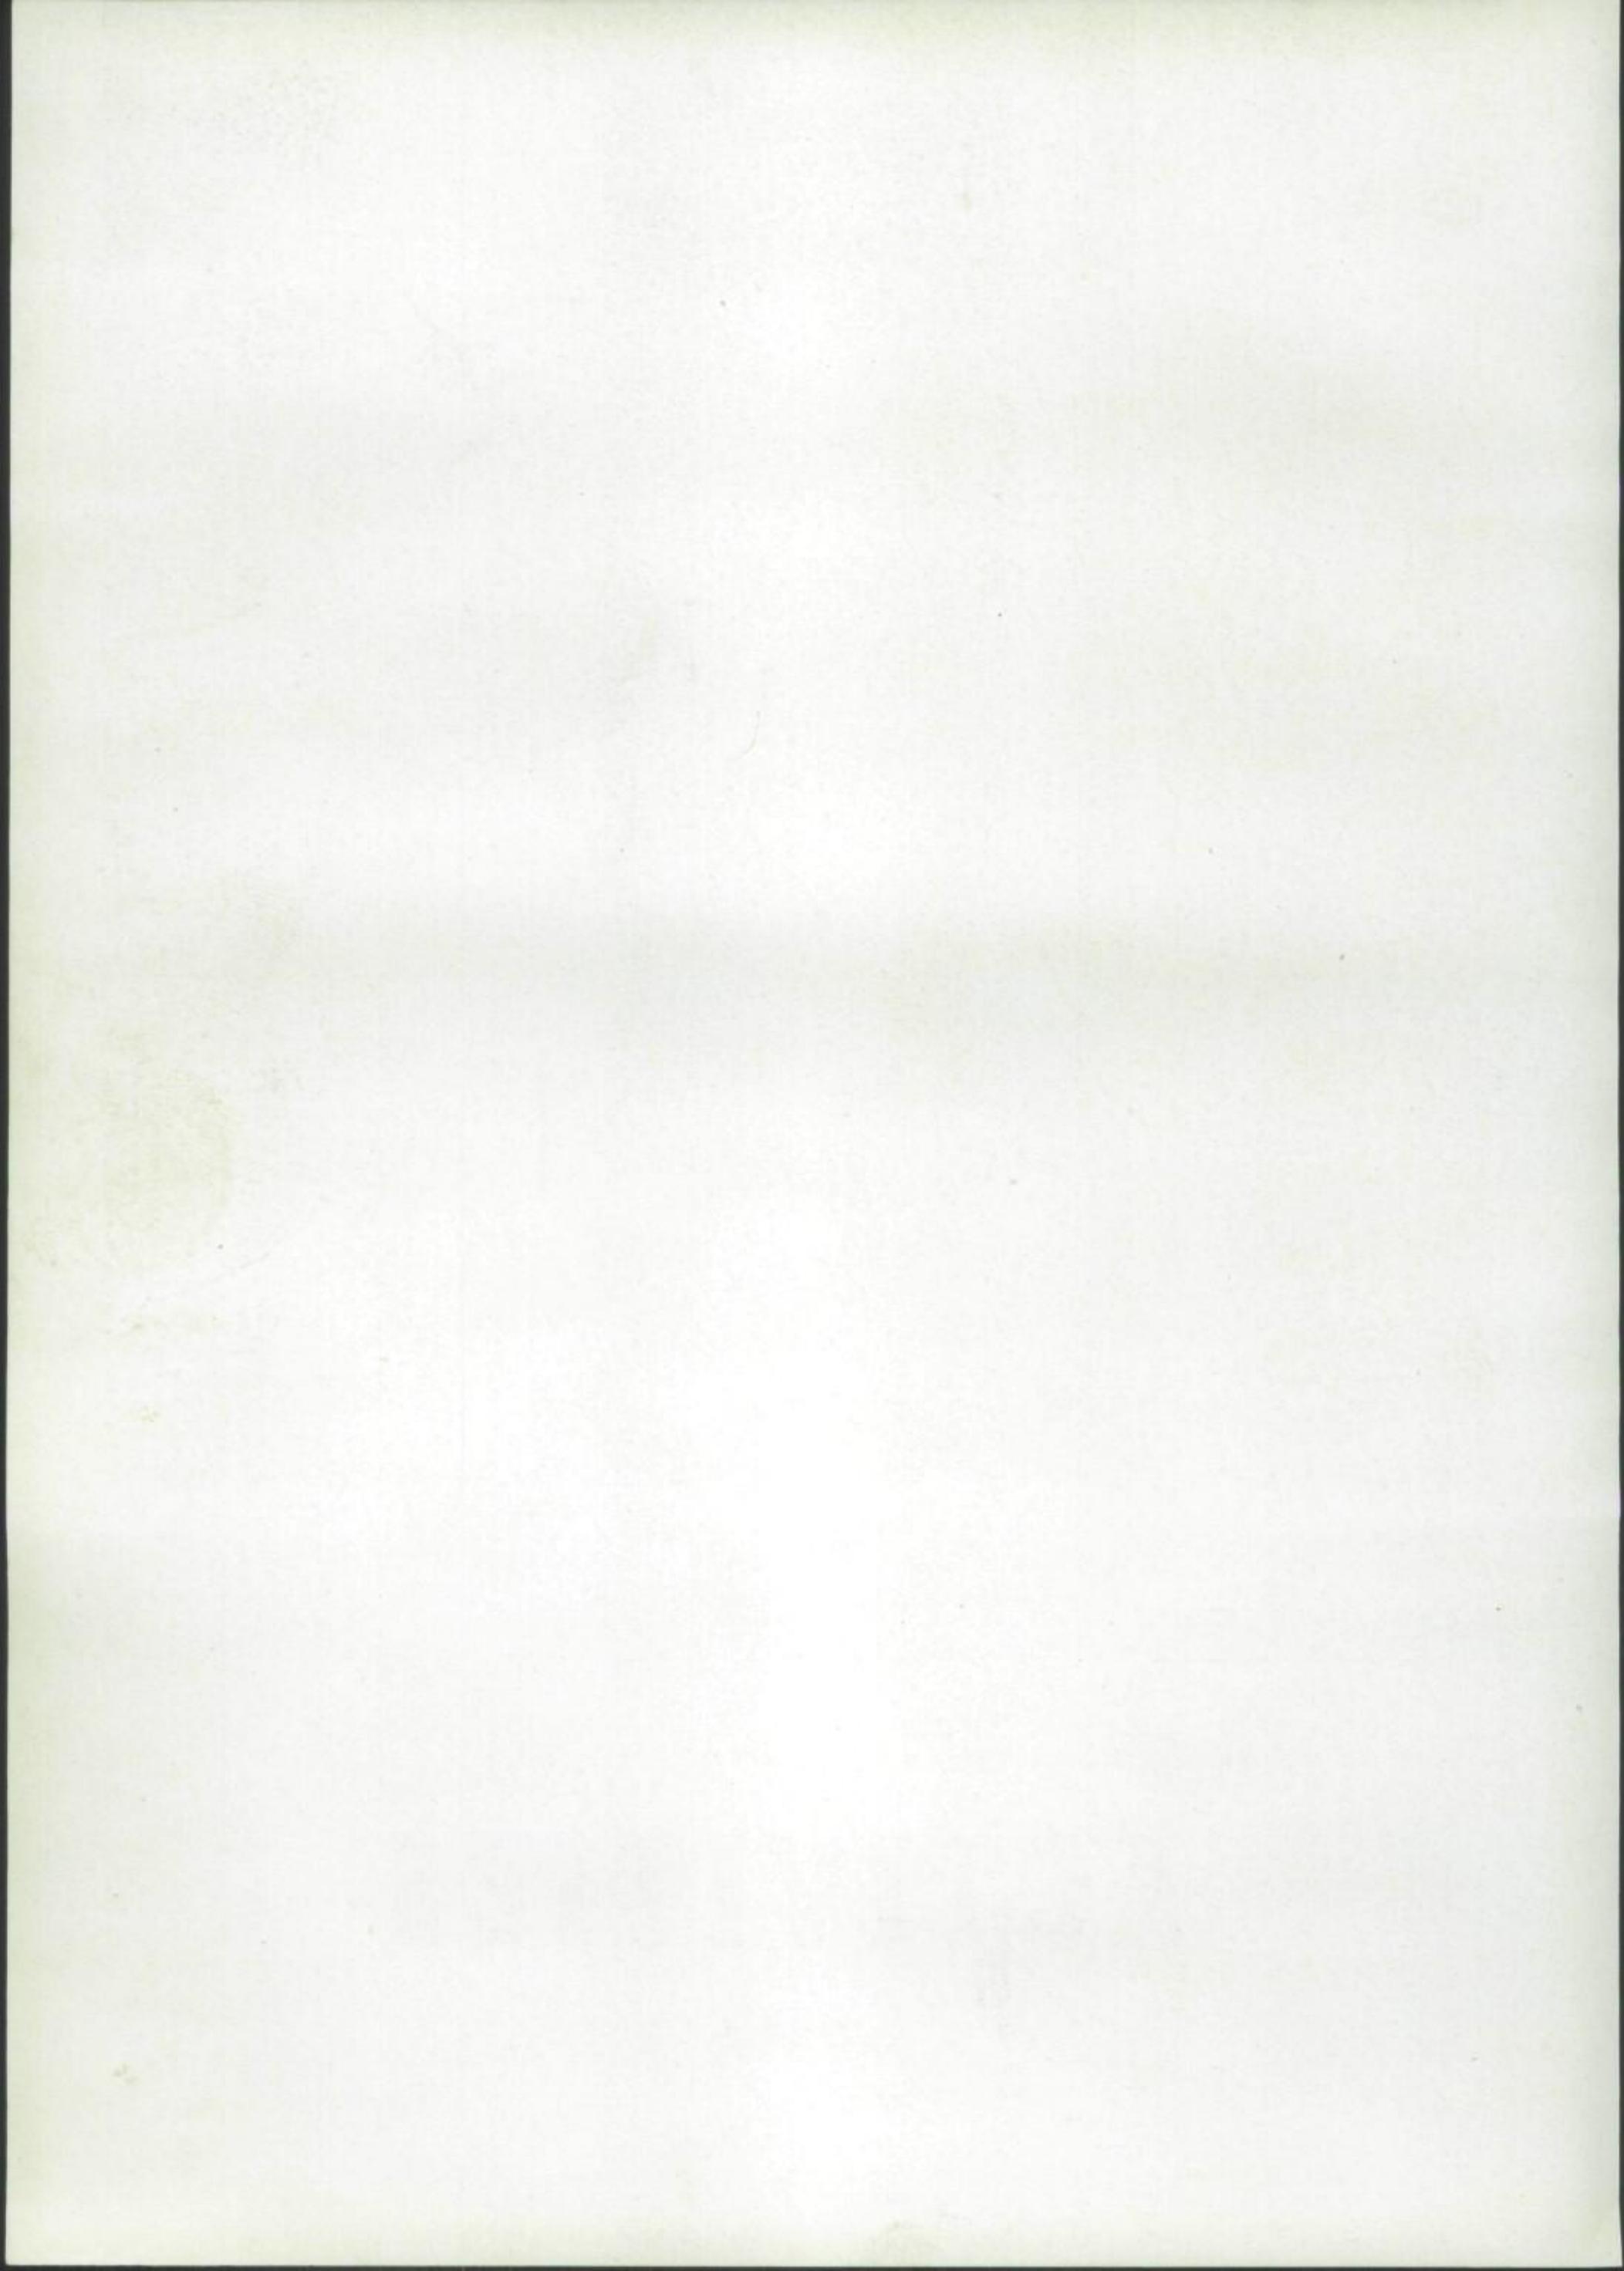

Mr. Omdahl was the boys' tumbling coach.

The boys' tumbling team, which practiced for two months, gave a splendid performance in Hi-Nite.

In the winter months, during the noon hour, boys' interclass and "Coffee and Donut League" basketball games are played. The seniors captured the interclass championship for the fourth consecutive year, and Mr. Tom Mullen's senior room 30 won the "Coffee and Donut League" series. Great interest was shown in these noon games.

MUSIC —

From the opening of school in the fall until the Commencement Exercises in May, the Music Department, under the direction of Mr. Arthur Newman, has had a full program.

The a capella choir of 37 members has attracted much interest this year. One of its first public performances was to furnish background music for the Christmas play, "Why the Chimes Rang." Close harmony, professional musicianship, plus smart uniforms characterize this group.

The orchestra devoted many hours in perfecting the Finale to Beethoven's Fifth Symphony. This group, which made a number of public appearances, was always well received by the public.

The 45 piece band, one of the largest in school history, supplied music for games, parades, and pep assemblies. Its snappy music, uniforms, and talented drum major and majorettes inspired spirit and enthusiasm whenever it played.

All three of these organizations participated in the Northwest Music Festival at Bellingham in April. On April 20 and 27, the most important music contests of the year took place in Everett. The "Night of Music" on April 16 was a climax to musical activities, the girls' trio also performing on this occasion.

Kumtux

Long hours of planning and work have been rewarded with an annual of which the staff can well be proud. Since early fall, the Kumtux staff has been busy taking snapshots, mounting pictures, writing stories, and planning the sales campaign which was opened February 29 with a peppy assembly.

Even before the sales drive opened, everyone was racking his brain for new page makeups and various ideas on how to make money in order to make this annual an outstanding one. Several money making schemes proved financially successful such as the sale of pencils with the basketball schedule printed on them, a movie pay assembly, and a smoker.

Cub

To bring to the students of Sedro-Woolley High School a newspaper, which not only has news, but useful and humorous articles as well, has been the aim and ambition of the Cub staff during 1940. More linoleum cuts portraying school activities, stories of classroom work, as well as articles of educational benefit were included. From time to time the use of new headlines improved the appearance of the paper.

As a Christmas present from the Cub staff to the student body, readers were surprised with a special six-page edition. Students were encouraged to read the ads by inserting in them each issue the names of five students who were then entitled to passes to the local theatre.

Five capable seniors headed the 1940 Cub staff: Arthur Hartvig, editor-in-chief; Elver Huntley, student adviser; Jean Rogers, associate editor; Marilyn Johnson, business manager; and Faye Stiles, assistant business manager. The various departments were competently filled by: Sjodin, sports; Kelly and Moffett, features; Schacht, news; Evans, clubs and activities; McInnes, Ayers, Utley, exchanges; Bell, Jordon, typists; and Ray Arentzen, art. Miss Jeanette Smith was editorial and business adviser.

Girls' Club

To inspire a feeling of friendliness and sincerity and to promote higher standards of living are two of the aims of the Girls' Club of Sedro-Woolley High School. All high school girls are automatically members of the Girls' Club. They are encouraged to develop those qualities which are essential for good citizenship and a pleasing personality.

In order to help the freshman girls and girls coming from other schools make acquaintances and begin participation in the various activities around school, a Big and Little Sister Assembly was held at the beginning of the year. Each senior girl was given a freshman to look after and guide throughout the year.

As a means of raising revenue, the Girls' Club gave the play, "Women Folks," on the afternoon of January 26. This amusing production was directed by Miss Marjorie McGilvrey.

In October, the Girls' Club officers and adviser entertained the officers and advisers from all the other high school Girls' Clubs in the county at a dinner. New acquaintances were made and a general feeling of friendship between club members was established.

As a climax to the year's activities, the girls were hostesses to their mothers on May 8 at their annual Mother-Daughter Night, at which time the newly elected officers for the coming year were officially given their positions in an impressive candlelight installation ceremony.

This year's officers were: president, Winters; vice-president, Thompson; secretary, Swanson; treasurer, Tyminski. Mrs. Mabel Bergholz was the adviser of this group.

Boys' Club

Under the able leadership of President David McIntyre, the Sedro-Woolley Boys' Club launched a wide spread and active program this year.

At the beginning of the year, the Boys' Club sponsored the sale of small leather football pins in a successful attempt to stimulate enthusiasm toward football. Through the sale of these pins and of candy at the football games, the Club managed to raise enough funds so that dues were not assessed.

At one of their earlier meetings, the boys had as their speaker Mr. Suran, the Federal Bureau of Investigation agent from Seattle. Speaking on the relation of crime to young people, Mr. Suran gave a very interesting and instructive talk, which was appreciated by all the boys. Other speakers were heard during the year.

The members of the Boys' Club entertained their fathers at their annual Father and Son Mixer, held on the evening of March 27. Speaker for the evening was Sheriff Severyns of King County who spoke on criminology, and the attitude of fathers toward their sons and of sons toward their parents. During the course of the evening, Mr. Severyns introduced to the group a prize bloodhound, Rambler. The main program was held in the auditorium and later refreshments were served in the cafeteria.

Officers for the year were: David McIntyre, president; Floyd Cratsenberg, vice-president; Ralph Stendal, secretary; Frank Hebert, treasurer. Mr. Elmer Isvick was adviser.

Night of January 16th

Bravely ignoring all thought of bad luck, black cats, or voodoo, the cast of "Night of January 16th" presented a murder trial on Friday, October 13!

Was Bjorne Faulkner killed on the night of January 16th, or is he still alive when Karen Andre is put on trial for his murder? The evidence is so evenly divided only a jury can provide an answer. All scenes for the play were laid in a courtroom from which the witnesses were called to the stand. The auditorium itself served as courtroom. Twelve members of the audience, mostly townspeople, were recruited to serve as jurymen. They witnessed the play as real jurors from the jury box on the stage and brought in their own verdict, undetermined until that moment, as the play ended.

Seldom has finer amateur acting been seen in a local production. A clever story, unusual staging, excellent acting and direction, all helped make this a production which will long be remembered.

The cast included those pictured above. Miss Marjorie McGilvrey was director; Jack Peterson, business manager; Audrey Cornelius, prompter; and Susan Batey, assistant prompter.

You Can't Take It with You

Humor! Romance! Drama! All of these features were provided in abundance for the audience at the senior play, "You Can't Take It With You," the last major dramatic production of the year given on Friday, March 29.

The plot of this excellent play was built around the philosophy that a man may be fabulously rich and yet be unhappy in his work, while another man earn but a bare living by following the work he likes best and still be perfectly satisfied. The cast included: Bill Studebaker, LaVerne Swanson, Carl Miller, Susan Batey, Wayne Hegg, Audrey Cornelius, Elver

Huntley, Roberta Humble, Bob Knowlton, Stella Deneen, Jim Sanders, Art Hartvig, Laurence Hunter, Judson Van Liew, Dolores Broe, Mike Pizzuto, Leonard Hudson, and Jack Peterson. These students distinguished themselves with splendid performances.

Miss Marjorie McGilvrey did a splendid job as director of the production, and she was assisted by Edythe Egbert, Lorraine Swanson, and Vera Harpst, student directors. Dave McIntyre, assisted by various student salesman, handled the business end of the play, and Wyman Hammer was in charge of publicity.

Hi-Nite

Hi-Nite, traditionally hilarious vaudeville, this year presented a more serious theme, a historical pageant depicting pioneer days in Sedro-Woolley and its vicinity. The production, directed by Mr. Glenn Hall, was not without humorous incidents, however, and interest was added to the show by the student portrayal of actual persons in the community.

These pioneer events were depicted for the audience: After much struggle by the first settlers in Skagit County, they finally won for themselves the formation of a school. The first school building was small and crudely built, but the settlers were proud of it. The naming of the town soon followed, and almost simultaneously the first edition of the "Skagit County Times" appeared.

Railroads then were none too reliable, but they did serve to open up the "wild and woolly" West. Charters were presented to the towns "Sedro" and "Woolley." There was a great deal of rivalry between the two towns, so they united to form Sedro-Woolley. Urgent need for establishing a county seat was apparent, but the campaign to have it located here failed.

Bob Fall's "Silver Threads Among the Gold"; "A Bicycle Built for Two," sung by Edythe and Elynore Egbert; harmony and humor by the Barber Shop Quartet composed of Fowler Walker, Larry King, J. R. Crawford, and Herbert Jones; and Bob Bassett's rendition of "A Bird in a Gilded Cage" provided entertainment characteristic of the time. An old-time dance, directed by Miss Vera Thompson, and a Can Can dance by Velma Reece, Roberta Humble, and Norma McLeod were in keeping with that period.

After the pageant, a touch of modernism was provided by the girls' trio, consisting of Marilyn Johnson, Beverly Moore, and Virginia Davis, accompanied by Miss Jeannette Smith; and an instrumental ensemble, directed by Mr. Arthur Newman, gave a musical background for the show.

"Three's a Crowd," a one-act comedy with a freshman and sophomore cast, directed by Miss McGilvrey, provided many laughs. The cast was as follows: Marilyn Jensen, Bob Doxsee, Jack Gaddis, Florence Moffett, and Allen McLean.

The athletic show in the gymnasium, directed by Miss Thompson, Mr. Omdahl, Mr. W. Mullen, and Mr. K. Driskill, met with general approval. Student managers were Wayne Hegg and Bernice Anderson. Student directors of the main show were: Susan Batey, Frank Hebert, Edythe Egbert, and Jean Rogers.

After the athletic show the crowd went to the cafeteria where booths, sponsored by the classes and several activities, offered fun and food for everyone.

Playcrafters

In the navy there's an old saying that "The marines do all the work but the navy gets the credit." In a play, program peddlers, hammer handlers, hem hangers, grease paint slingers, and mercenary money-takers all work extremely hard, but only the actors receive public acclaim. The audience seldom stops to think that before and after every performance, the various crews are busily engaged in securing properties and costumes, fixing scenery, applying makeup, selling tickets, and tending to many other details. These various crews are indispensable to any dramatic production.

One of the largest purchases made by the Associated Students this year was a cyclorama for the stage, light beige in color. This cyclorama, which is hung in sections, is very adaptable and attractive drapery setting for the stage.

The heads and advisers of these crews are: costume crew, Clara Meins, head, Miss Marget Isaacson, adviser; property crew, Bernice Anderson, head, and Miss Marjorie McGilvrey, adviser; stage crew, Winton Klaus, head, and Mr. A. B. Summers, adviser; ushers, Merle Stanley, head, and Miss Marget Isaacson, adviser.

The Women Folks

What is a man to do when his women folks start an argument with his fiancee over a simple question such as: "Which way does the Leaning Tower of Pisa lean?" A humorous one-act play given before the Associated Students by the Girls' Club presented a solution for this complex problem.

Miss Marjorie McGilvrey directed the production and footlight frills were provided by Bernice Anderson, Fay Bjerstedt, Marna Beebe, Joyce Boyd, Doris Holden, Ardelle Reynolds, and Don Johnston. Don was borrowed from the Boys' Club for the performance.

Why the Chimes Rang

Elizabeth McFadden's beautiful Christmas play, "Why The Chimes Rang," was given before the Associated Students, on Friday, December 22. The story was built around the idea that "the gift without the giver is bare." The a capella choir singing from the balcony added to the effectiveness of the production.

The cast included: Bill Stiles, Emma Lee Holden, LaVerne Swanson, Herbert Drummond, Carl Miller, Lloyd Marihugh, Vera Harpst, Bill Studebaker, Elynore Egbert, Warren Brown, Elver Huntley, and Lorraine Swanson. Dolores Broe was prompter, and Miss Marjorie McGilvrey directed the production.

Braintrusters

Under Coach Una Stewart, debate was a popular activity, drawing 22 students. A debater not only acquires the ability to speak, but also gets a certain knowledge of his country's national problems. Debate subject this year was "How should we deal with the problem of the railroads in the U. S.?" Besides debating with several schools in Skagit County, S. W. participated in a conference in Bellingham and a speech tournament at C.P.S.

Leonard Hudson won first place in the local tuberculosis essay contest and second in the county.

Arthur Hartvig, Bill Studebaker, Merle Stanley, and LaVerne Swanson, who were chosen as delegates to attend the U. of W. High School Conference, had an opportunity to view college life and bring back valuable information from the meetings.

"Americanism" was the subject chosen for the declamation contest by the Women's Auxiliary of the American Legion. Each contestant was required to compose his own speech and be prepared to deliver an extemporaneous talk on certain sections of the constitution. Contestants from Woolley were Leonard Hudson and Merle Stanley. Merle won first in the local contest and third in the county finals.

Student librarians devote at least one hour each day to this work.

Hard Workers

With forty members, the F.F.A. is organized to develop scholarship, rural leadership, and other desirable qualities. The group has entered three types of judging contests: livestock, potato, and crop. Mr. Ralph Olmstead is adviser.

Membership in the Honor Society is based on scholarship, service, leadership, and character. Members must maintain a high scholastic average. Officers are: E. Bell, president; J. Rogers, vice-president; G. Browne, secretary; and Miss Alma Youngberg, adviser.

Book room clerks and the office staff have given service to students throughout the year. It has been the duty of Mabel Hanson, bookkeeper, to keep a record of accounts for the A.S.B. Throughout the year, Mrs. Robert Parker and the cafeteria staff have provided excellent lunches for ravenous students.

Radio and Photography Club has been a popular activity, with Mr. Glenn Hall as adviser.

Around the Clock

By this pictorial clock, an attempt has been made to portray the typical daily events in the lives of average students at Woolley High.

1. Came the cold gray dawn and Frank Hebert is caught red-handed. Remember it's the early bird that gets the worm, Frank!
2. Florence looks cheerful enough to sing in the shower, but do you suppose she remembered to wash behind her ears?
3. Mrs. Hunter feeds her boy, Grant, Wheaties for breakfast so he'll be like Joe Di Maggio when he grows up.
4. Hey, Dave, hear you're the first trumpet in the orchestra when Fred Thompson isn't there.
5. Why don't you speak for yourself, Audrey? Floyd won't mind. Seen around the halls.
6. Monteen enjoying a "Whimpy special" during the "pause that refreshes."

7. Phyllis is just a dreamer in class, but aren't we all?
8. Dorothy ready to go home on the bus. Even if it isn't a Rolls Royce, she isn't particular as long as school's out.
9. Always thought ye editor was a teetotaler but look at that bottle! Could it possibly be rubber cement, LaVerne?
10. When a feller needs a friend. Wish we could help you, Ivan. Oh, yeah?
11. And she was such a nice cow, too. Whatcha doing back there, Jack, lurking in ambush? A job after school does help.
12. Guess Peggy has to eat dinner by herself when she cooks what she learned at school.
13. Hi, ya, Marilyn! Whatcha doing tonight? Wnder if Dave's bicycle is built for two?

Off Guard

1. Two fish out of water, Emily and Ellie.

2. Is winking that painful, Stan?

3. Lloyd seems disgusted by the cultural literature he is reading at a football game to broaden his mental capacity.

4. Roger smiling obligingly at the birdie, or is he about to give a Bronx cheer?

5. Two little maids at a Spanish mission, Peggy and Fay.

6. G. A. A.'ers at Cranberry Lake.

7. Ya got him that time, Roberta, and how Carl seems to love it!

8. Betcha Wayne's enjoying himself! (A thorn among peppy roses.)

9. We cut off the rest of the fish so the game warden wouldn't get our teacher.

10. Tsk, tsk, holding hands again, huh? You're not fooling anyone with those derbies, gals.

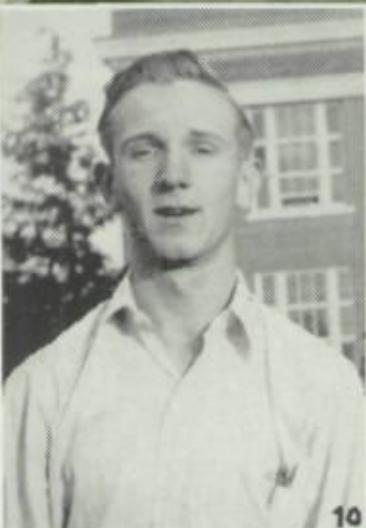

11. Two Meins looking like miners at Glacier mine. (Your face is dirty, Bill.)

12. Doris is just a little bashful, that's all.

13. Life is certainly a serious business for musicians. Tart, Ot, and Fred.

14. How sweet you look, Florence?

15. Is that love light or sun in your eyes, Peg?

Here and There

1. Ardelle just being Ardelle.

2. You'd look pretty silly if that window came down, Olie. Do you suppose this is the way they carry on in American Problems every day? How's to get in that class, Umie?

3. Lillian and LaVerne planning to cram for finals. It's nice you can be so cheerful about it.

4. Miss Thompson said that was a picture of a sea cookie on her sweater. Looks harmless enough.

5. Buck up, Bill. Things do look tough but didn't anyone tell you there would be days like this? Look at the other fellows. They're going to take it and like it.

6. A life sized view of Mr. Colby. Betcha wouldn't be smiling like that if you knew what was behind you.

7. Why, Roger!!! Aren't you ashamed?

8. You can't ride a motorcycle sidesaddle, Edythe. Climb right on and toe in like Velma.

9. Why don't you pick on someone your own size, Punk? Some G.A.A. dancers.

10. Frank just getting his eyes open. Eight hours of sleep would fix everything up.

11. Isn't Nelda Ruth a little heavy to ride piggyback, Jean?

12. You two wouldn't be afraid of each other, would you?

13. Some of S. W.'s most loyal fans at a football game. Bernice is explaining the fine points of the game to her neighbor. It must be an exciting moment from the way Maxine is biting her fingernails.
